MEMORANDUM FOR

THE DIRECTOR
OFFICE OF EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

SUBJECT: National Security Aspects of Oil Pipeline from Alaska

By memorandum of September 4, attached, the Secretaries of State and Defense, in cooperation with other interested agencies, were requested to develop a study identifying the national security considerations involved in the movement of oil by pipeline from Alaska.

The Director, Office of Emergency Preparedness, is requested to coordinate the submissions of all participating agencies, to incorporate them into a single study and to forward the study to the Secretary of Interior by October 1, 1971.
